ENTREES

Dead End BBQ uses only fresh, never frozen pork, beef, ribs, and chicken. Although more expensive, meat that is never frozen retains more of its natural moisture, tastes better, and has a better texture. Our beef Brisket is Certified Black Angus, our Pork is IBP brand with superior marbling and taste, the ribs are from Hormel, and our chicken is from Homestead and delivered fresh three times each week.

DEAD END B♦B♦Q

You have arrived – the end of the road, and the end of your search for great barbeque in Knoxville.

Dead End Barbeque was born at the end of a dead-end street where neighbors gathered to barbeque. For more than a decade the Dead End Society honed their barbequing skills in the dead end, and in professional barbeque competitions where they achieved national recognition.

The Dead End BBQ restaurant has been created to take you there. To the smells, the sounds, and the homemade tastes of an exceptional American neighborhood barbeque in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Neighbors at the end of the road cooking BBQ. What could be better than that?
